

KALEIDOSCOPE

2010-11

LEADING IN A DIVERSE SOCIETY

THE ACTIVIST CLEVE JONES

Human rights leader and founder of the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt talks about today's challenges.

Oct. 20, 8 p.m., Jepson Alumni Center

THE ROLE MODEL DEIRDRE MCCLOSKEY

Professor and memoir author tells a compelling personal story of crossing to her real identity as a woman.

Nov. 30, Noon, Jepson Hall

THE EXPLORER DARYL DAVIS

Musician and maverick breaks down barriers striving to understand stereotypes, the KKK and the roots of hate.

Jan. 31, 8 p.m., Jepson Alumni Center

THE PIONEER JACKSON KATZ

Athlete and gender scholar stands up for women and stresses why men must help women gain equality and safety.

March 15, 8 p.m., Jepson Alumni Center

LEADING IN A DIVERSE SOCIETY

The Kaleidoscope series is an initiative of the Jepson Student Government Association

in collaboration with many University offices and groups including:

Athletics, Common Ground,

Music Department,

Office of Multicultural Affairs, Richmond College,

Student Alliance for Sexual Diversity,

Women Involved in Living and Learning and Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies.

All events are free and open to members of the University community and invited guests. Seating is limited.

The Nov. 30 event will require preregistration for catering purposes.

For more information visit jepson.richmond.edu.

JEPSON
School of Leadership Studies™